

PERIOD PAIN SIMULATOR (EXHIBITION)

Description:

A period pain simulator machine is a device designed to mimic the sensations of menstrual cramps, giving those who use it an experience similar to what some people feel during menstruation. The primary purpose of such simulators is educational and empathetic, allowing individuals to understand the intensity and discomfort of period pains.

Student Coordinators:

Gopika Gopi (S8,EEE) : 📞 7736986150

Aju Mathew (S4,EEE) : 📞 8281455821

Staff Coordinator:

Ms. Roshni Baby : 📞 8157092576